

Durant, OK:

Nate Morrison, VP

Nate heads up our newest banking center in Durant, Oklahoma. With his many years of experience in lending and bank operations, he is well respected in the financial arena and community. Nate grew up in Durant, received his degree from Southeastern Oklahoma State University, and made Durant his home; he knows the community and the people. Nate treats customers like in the “good old days” — giving them the respect they want and deserve. As soon as you meet Nate, you’ll know he’s a family man, someone who loves humor, and a guy who can be your banker and your friend. When he’s not banking, he’s enjoying time with his wife and children.
